Yesterday's Tournaments.

The match shoot between Alva Crawford and Wallace Steele at 100 English sparrows for $25 per side was won yesterday morning at the Blue Grass Gun Club's grounds by Mr. Crawford. The score was Crawford 79, Steele 69.

The following are the prize winners in the Merchandise Shoot yesterday afternoon:

Fifth event, 25 birds—Sam Clay, J. W. Ferguson 25, Ed Hibler 24, G. W. Clay 23, Frank Clay 22, Duncan Bell 21, Jas. McLaughlin 20. Twelve tied for first prize.

Sixth event, 50 birds—Wallace Steele 50, J. M. Brennan 48, E. T. Shipp 46, Aylette Buckner 45, S. B. Rogers 44, Alfred Clay 43.

T. H. Clay, Jr., won first prize for high average, G. W. Clay second high average. T. H. Clay also won prize for greatest number of straight kills, scoring 44.

Wallace Mitchell won prize for greatest number of straight misses, scoring ten to T. E. Moore, Jr.'s nine.

Twenty-two men took part in the tournament.

The entire tournament has been a success and the members of the Bluegrass Gun Club wish to thank the merchants for their liberality in contributing prizes.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Virginia Brewer, mother of W. W. Brewer, of the L. & N., this city, died Saturday and her funeral was held Tuesday from her residence, 1547 Banklick street, in Covington. The deceased was fifty-six years old and was a most estimable Christian woman, being a faithful member of the Shiloh M. E. Church. The deceased was well known in this city.

Miss Jane Russell Brown, daughter of Prof. James Brown, late of Cincinnati, died this week at the Brown home in Los Angeles, Cal., after a protracted illness. The deceased was a lovely young woman, rarely gifted with musical genius, and her death is a sad shock to her many Kentucky friends. The funeral will be held at Cincinnati Sunday afternoon. The deceased was born in this city on February 28th, 1876. She was related to the Purnell families in Bourbon.

Claude Ewalt, aged twenty-three, died in this city Wednesday morning of consumption. The deceased was a son of John H. Ewalt, and was a very popular young man. Funeral from the residence on High street this morning at half-past eleven o'clock. Services by Rev. Dr. Rutherford.

BIRTHS.

Two forms will be offered by Pennsylvania Lines. One will be good over direct line, the other via Washington where stop-over may be enjoyed. Both forms may be obtained at Louisville and Cincinnati, June 14th to 18th, inclusive. Sleeping car reservations may be made at same places. (2)

The Louisville Convention.

The Democratic State Convention was called to order yesterday afternoon at 2:35 by Ollie James, who was elected Chairman.

Gov. Beckham is attending the convention and was cheered when he entered the hall.

It is said that Senator Blackburn has letters from Mr. Bryan saying the Goebel law must be repealed.

The Seventh District Convention endorsed T. E. Moore, Jr., of Bourbon, and W. P. Thorne, of Henry, delegates to the National Convention.

Miss Helen Gould returned to Louisville Tuesday from the Mammoth Cave and left immediately for New York. She was highly pleased with her visit to Kentucky. At Horse Cave she was presented with some flowers by school children and allowed herself to be kodaked for the first time.

MILTON and WM. KENDALL, sentenced Saturday in the Jessamine Circuit Court to five years each in the penitentiary for killing farmer Eugene Cassell, have been granted a new trial. Attorney John S. Smith was one of the attorneys for the defendants.

POOR & EMBRY, of Nicholasville, Wednesday sold to Wetz & Klink, of Buffalo, 400 cattle, weight 1,000 pounds, at $4.55 per cwt.

J. D. Smith's colt June Jayle, by Henry of Navarre, won the Harold Stakes Tuesday at Latonia. The colt is named for Congressman June Gayle.

Talbot Bros.' handicap horse John Bright was shipped Wednesday from Latonia to Sheepshead Bay where he starts against Ethelbert, Jean Beraud, Imp and others to-morrow in the Suburban Handicap. John Bright worked the Suburban distance Tuesday at Latonia in 2:09 1/4. He will be ridden by Spencer in the big race.

Hood Worthington delivered his lambs to D. N. Prewitt, Friday, and he made a record that will hardly be equaled in Kentucky this Spring. From only 150 ewes he had 195 lambs and out of the 295 lambs he delivered 174, averaging eighty pounds. C. T. Worthington also delivered to Prewitt 216 that averaged eighty-seven pounds. These two bunches were extra fine.—Danville Advocate.
